

Target Market Statement

Protek Group Limited (Lead Manufacturer)

QBE UK Limited (Co-Manufacturer)

Not Intended for Consumer Use

In accordance with (PROD 4.2.30) and (PROD 4.2.32), our Target Market Statement will provide you, the distributor, with all appropriate information on our insurance products, enabling you to fully understand Protek products (PROD 4.2.31).

For certain insurance lines Protek may produce a single Target Market Statement to cover more than one product; where the product delivers similar covers and outcomes and where the target market is identical. (PROD 4.2.34E).

Product Oversight and Governance

In accordance with PROD 4, our Product Oversight and Governance Policy will set out the standards required to ensure the achievement of fair value and good customer outcomes for the foreseeable period.

Our product approval process will be proportionate and appropriate to the nature of the product. Consideration will have been taken with regards to the potential impact our reviews may have on existing or potential customers. Particularly the potential risk and possible levels of harm to customers if the products design is flawed (PROD 4.2.3A). As part of our design process, we will take into account the objectives, interests and characteristics of potential customers ensuring our products do not adversely affect or cause detriment to policyholders. The nature and complexity of the customer base will be included within the product approval process.

Our assessment of value will include consideration of the following, in accordance with (PROD 4.2.14E):

- The nature of the product including the benefits provided, their quality and any limitations;
- The type and quality of services provided to customers;
- The expected total price to be paid by the customer when buying or renewing the product, and the elements that make up the total price.

We will also take into consideration the pricing model used to calculate the risk premium, the overall cost of the product including retail premium finance and remuneration of those parties in the distribution arrangements. We will review how the intended distribution arrangements support and do not adversely affect the intended value of the product.

When considering the charging structure (PROD 4.2.25) proposed for this product, we examine its costs, charges and compatibility alongside the needs, objectives and characteristics of the target market.

When assessing the value of this product (PROD 4.2.14J) we will use all necessary and appropriate data available to us.

Our products will be reviewed annually (PROD 4.2.12) or following significant adaptation(s), unless otherwise determined by its complexity, whereby more regular reviews may be carried out.

In line with (PROD 4.2.5A) our product approval process will identify whether our products are, or remain, appropriate to be marketed or distributed to customers.

These requirements are in place in order to ensure Protek policyholders receive fair value.
